

FACT SHEET

Canada leads the world in forest certification

Almost 40% of the world's sustainably managed forests are right here in Canada. Over 160 million hectares have been certified by independent third parties such as the Forest Stewardship Council (FSC), Sustainable Forestry Initiative (SFI) or the Program for the Endorsement of Forestry Certification (PEFC) which partners with the Canadian Standards Association (CSA).

CANADIAN CERTIFICATION In Global Context

Source: www.certificationcanada.org